

- ❖ To register
- ❖ For more info

Fall Webinar Series For Sustainable Communities

Announcing ANJEC's new webinar program for environmental commissions, green teams and other municipal officials working to protect natural resources and become more sustainable. Space is limited so register early!

- Learn without going anywhere
- Get your questions answered
- A group can participate together for the price of one registration
- Recorded webinar available for no extra charge

Sustainable Sites: *Where Green Building Begins - Site selection, building orientation and landscaping to preserve soils and vegetation, protect habitat, reduce stormwater runoff and conserve energy

Monday, Sept. 20
7:30-8:30pm

Steven Leone, AIA, LEEDap, Principal Spiezle Architectural Group, Inc.

Anatomy of an Ordinance - Foundations and elements of a good ordinance, examples, considerations to prevent legal challenges

Monday, Oct. 4
7:30-8:30pm

Sandy Batty, ANJEC Executive Director
Abbie Fair, ANJEC Project Director

Open Space Planning for Urban, Suburban and Rural Communities - Developing the plan, process for establishing an open space trust, writing an open space ordinance, monitoring use of open space

Tuesday, Oct. 26
7:30-8:30pm

Laura Szwak, New Jersey Conservation Foundation

Implementing a Grant Project Developing the proposal, hiring a consultant, involving the public, managing the steps

Monday, Nov. 8
7:30-8:30pm

Kerry Miller, ANJEC Asst. Director

Getting Businesses on Board - Case studies on how ECs and green teams have engaged the business community in sustainability efforts

Monday, Nov. 29
7:30-8:30pm

Marian Glenn, Chair, Summit Environmental Commission

These webinars are made possible through the support of The Fund for New Jersey

Webinar Fees
 $10 For ANJEC members ($40 for entire series)
 $15 for non members ($60 for entire series)
 No charge for members on the ANJEC Workshop Plan